A review of this file reflects that [REDACTED] were made to Mrs. REBECCA BARR, mother of the subject, residing at 241 West 97th Street, New York City, [REDACTED] for the purpose of determining if the subject was still without the United States on the following dates: 07K

August 25, 1948
January 13, 1949
August 1, 1949.

Each time it was determined that JOEL BARR was still in Europe. On April 24, 1950, Special Agent RICHARD E. BRENNAN interviewed the elevator operator in the BARR apartment house at which time it was learned that JOEL BARR had not yet returned home.

On July 26, 1950, the writer interviewed FRANK GIBSON, elevator man at 241 West 97th Street, New York City, at which time it was learned that JOEL BARR had not, to his knowledge, returned to reside in Apartment 15-K with his mother at that address.

One of GIBSON's duties is to sort and deliver mail to the occupants of the building and he advised that in the last two months he had not noticed any mail from Europe from JOEL BARR to his mother.

At the time of the interview GIBSON told the Agent that Mrs. BARR's daughter, IRIS GILBOARD, and her son-in-law, whose first name was unknown to GIBSON, were visiting with Mrs. BARR for a week. GIBSON stated that he is quite sure that GILBOARD comes from Boston, Massachusetts.

RE: JOEL BARR
ESPIONAGE - R

JAMES SANGINARIO, Assistant Manager, Industrial Bank of Commerce, 5 Union Square, New York City, made available the following information to SA(A) EDWARD J. CAHILL:

On 3/5/45, Loan #HL-67293 in the amount of $540 was made by this bank. The ledger card for this loan gave the borrower's name as Miss JOEL BARR, 241 West 97th Street, New York 25, N.Y., phone CI 5-5500, Ext. 242. SANGINARIO said he believed this was a man's name and that it was a clerical error that the word Miss had been inserted on the card.
He said further that because all their other records such as the loan application and so forth had been destroyed, this error could not be verified. The ledger card for this loan showed the borrower's age to be 29 years. The first payment of $45 was made to the bank on April 6, 1945 and the final payment was made March 7, 1946. The co-maker on this loan was ALFRED SARANT, 65 Morton Street, New York City, Br 9-9300. The net proceeds received by BARR on this loan totaled $494.70.

Check #HL-37146 was dated March 5, 1945 and was issued in favor of BARR by the Industrial Bank. The bank maintains a photograph of this check and this photograph was reviewed and it was noted that this check was endorsed first by JOEL BARR and secondly by ROSE BARR, and was received by deposit by the National City Bank, New York City, on March 8, 1945.

On March 7, 1947, Loan #HT-65704 in the amount of $720 was made by the Industrial Bank to JOEL BARR. The term of the loan was 15 months and payments were $48 each month. The final payment on this loan was made August 2, 1948. Proceeds were deposited at Nat. City Bank.
